JOHN CRUM LEACH AND HIS WIFE, MARY C. GREENE

Some of Their Ancestors and Some of Their Descendants

A Genealogical and Biographical Sketch

John Crum Leach was born on 8 April 1827 in New York.[1] Some indirect evidence suggested that he was probably a son of the John Leach who died 2 February 1840, at age 47, in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence County, New York. This John Leach was born about 1793.[2] We have revealed in the following paragraph some of the evidence that we feel points to a father-son relationship between John Leach born about 1793, and John Crum Leach born in 1827 in New York.

Sanford's, Early History of the Town of Hopkinton, stated on page 104 that "Rufus Greene, [father of Mary C. Greene] . . . took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side." Additional remarks related the close proximity of the Leach and Greene families, "John Leach, father of David, took a tract in 1835 next west of Mr. Harran on south side, where he had a log house, all trace of which has gone." Further evidence of a connection between John Crum Leach and Mary C. (Greene) Leach and residents of Hopkinton exist. John and Mary Leach are mentioned on page 105 of Sanford's local history which was published in 1903. Direct evidence from primary sources showed that John Crum Leach and the widow of Rufus Greene and a most of their children left New York for Wisconsin fifty years prior to the publication of the Early History of the Town of Hopkinton. These writers felt that John Crum Leach and family had to have a very close relationship with an important resident of Hopkinton to have detailed and current information about them cited in this book. We believe that the connection was David Leach. A young John Crum Leach left New York in his early twenties. He was far too young to have made his mark as an early, prominent settler who earned mention in a history of the area.

A final piece of indirect evidence of a relationship between John Crum Leach and David Leach resides in this fact. On the 1840 U.S. Census for Hopkinton, a young male between the ages of 10 and 15 resided with David Leach. John Leach died 2 February 1840, and we feel that John Crum Leach continued to reside with David Leach. John was 13 years old in 1840. We have continued to search for evidence to support the above theses. In the following pages, we will present information about the Leaches, some of their ancestors and some of their descendants.

Mary C. Greene was born 4 January 1830 in Shelburne, Chittenden County, Vermont, the daughter of Rufus Greene and his wife, Betsey Weed.[3] Betsey was born on 16 September1790 in Hinesburg, Chittenden County, Vermont, the daughter of John Weed and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps.[4] Rufus Greene and Betsey Weed were married 30 August 1807 in Hinesburg, Vermont. John Weed's name was entered on their marriage record as Betsey's father. No information was provided concerning the parents of Rufus Greene.[5]

Note: Betsey Weed's father, John Weed, was probably the son of Jacob Weed and Sarah Kittersfield.[6] Her mother, Dorothy (Dolly) Phelps was the daughter of Lemuel Phelps and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps.[7] Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps was born in Belchertown, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, the daughter of Joseph Austin Phelps and Hannah "Anna" Hutchinson.[8]

Considerable research has been done in an attempt to identify the parents of Rufus Greene. However, to date, no real progress has been made. It is possible that he was connected to the Surgeon John Greene family from Rhode Island, but this suspicion has not been proved either by direct or indirect evidence. Jonathon Greene, a neighbor of John Weed, was a descendant of Surgeon Greene, but no connection has been made between Jonathon Greene and Rufus Greene.

This quote from the Early History of the Town of Hopkinton, by Carlton E. Sanford, pages 104-105, provided a link between John Leach and the Rufus Greene family. "John Leach, father of David, took a tract in 1835 next west of Mr. Harran on south side, where he had a log house, all trace of which has gone."[9]

The John Leach mentioned in the previous paragraph was probably the John Leach who died 2 February 1840, at age 47. This John Leach was buried in Section B, Lot 20, Hillcrest Cemetery, Parishville, New York. Others buried in the same lot were Joseph Brownell, no record; Hannah Brownell, age 25, died January 1, 1836; and Phila Hazen, age 31, died April 18, 1826. To date, no other information has connected this John Leach to others buried in this lot.[10]

Direct evidence from primary or secondary sources has not been found to link John Crum Leach with John Leach, the father of David. Indirect evidence led these writers to believe that John Crum Leach was probably the son of John Leach and a brother of David. Research will continue in an effort to substantiate the relationship.

The following quote from the Early History of the Town Hopkinton referred to the Rufus Greene family:

> "Rufus Greene came from ____Vt., and took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side. His wife was Jane Wood [sic], [His wife was actually Betsey Weed.] and they had nine children: viz., Pliny, who died in California; Jane, who married Darius E. Kent in 1842; Melville, who died at Racine, Wis.; William, Lucius, Ira, who died in Missouri; Charles who died in California; Mary, who married John Leach and now lives at Havana, N.D., and Robert, who died at Racine, Wis. All are dead except Mary."[11]

Rufus Green died 7 April 1847 in Hopkinton, St. Lawrence, County, New York, at age 60 from consumption.[12] His birth year, circa 1787, was estimated from his age at the time of death was The Early History of the Town of Hopkinton contained a diary. Two entries on page 392 referred to the death of Rufus Greene. [March] 6th [1847]. . .Mr. Rufus Greene died to-day, been sick about six years, endured a great deal of suffering. [March] 8th Mr. Greene buried to-day. . ."[13]

Probate records for Betsey Greene filed the 15th March 1879, recorded in Volume 11, page 105, State of Wisconsin, Kenosha County, gave the following facts: Betsey Greene died 3 February 1872 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Mary C. Leach was appointed executor of her mother's will. "Kenosha County Court--In Probate. Your Petitioner [Mary C. Leach] further states that the heirs and next of kin of the said Betsey Green [sic] deceased, are Melville R.

Green, Ira W. Green, Charles E. Green. & Jane A. Kent, besides your petitioner--all sons & daughters of said deceased."[14]

These writers felt that David Leach was important in the preparation of the sketch of John Crum and Mary C. Leach. Some indirect evidence from secondary sources suggests that John Crum Leach was a younger brother of David

David identified as the son of John Leach in the Early History of the Town of Hopkinton was born 30 August 1816, married Mary Smith, who was born 15 May 1820, the daughter of Josiah Smith and Sally Corwin. "The Smiths came to Hopkinton in 1833. Mary, m. David Leach, April 10, 1842, b. Aug. 30, 1816, d. April 17, 1900. Had two children:"[15] Their two children had the following headstone inscriptions on the David Leach monument in the Hopkinton Cemetery: "Ella H. Leach/Wife of/Carlos Colton/Born Mar. 30, 1845/Died Sept. 4, 1900, and Frances Leach/Born Sept. 23, 1843/Died Apr. 21, 1859.[16]

David's death record was secured from the State of New York, Bureau of Vital Statistics, Registered No. 15531. His death record gave his age at death as 83 years 7 mos. 16 days. His birthplace was listed as Vermont, and his place of death was given as Hopkinton. The record showed 70 years as the answer to the question, "How long a resident here." His father's name was recorded as John Leach, born Vt.; his mother's name, Abigail Ellis, born Vt. David's date of birth was not stated on his death record, but his actual age at death was provided in years, months, and days.[17]

The 1900 U.S. Census for Weber Township, Sargent County, North Dakota, taken 22nd June 1900, provided the following information for John C. Leach: "John C. Leach, born Apr. 1827, age 73, married 46 years, born in New York, father born in New Hampshire, mother born in Vermont"[18] Even though the death record for David Leach gave his father's birthplace as Vermont, this information cannot be considered reliable. The person providing the answers may not have known the actual facts concerning his parents.

The 1840 census for Hopkinton, St. Lawrence County, New York listed a David Leach on page 277, line 24 of the census. His name was omitted from the 1840 census index, but he was discovered on the same page as Rufus Greene. One male, [possibly John Crum Leach] was recorded in the 10-15 age group. This male was obviously too old to be a child of David. One male in the 20-30 age group and one female, 15-20, were also recorded in the household. David was born in 1816, and he was probably the one male in the 20-30 category. However, the identity of the female between the ages of 15-20 remains a mystery.[19] She may have been a sister or a housekeeper. David married Mary Smith 10 April 1842; therefore, he was probably single at the time of the 1840 census.

St. Lawrence County records listed a will for David Leach, No. 10155, died April 17, 1900. An effort will be made to secure a copy of this will from St. Lawrence County records in the hope that helpful information will be provided.[20]

Abigail Ellis was recorded as David's mother on his death record.[21] With this information, it was easy to find a marriage record for John Leach and Abigail Ellis. A record of the marriage was

However, a record of his whereabouts in 1850 has not been found. To date, Mary C. Greene has not been located in the 1850 census. She was 20 or 21 years old at the time of the census. Since she was born on 4 January 1830, she was probably 21 years old at the time the census was taken.

> It was with some relief that the following brief sketch of the Leaches was found: "JOHN C. LEACH, farmer, Sec. 5; P.O. Kenosha; born in New York in 1827; came West in 1851, locating in Kenosha Co.; he engaged in farming, which he followed until 1870, when he left his farm, returning in 1872, since which time he has remained on the farm; 1858 to 1860, he was Assessor for the town of Somers; was a member of the Town Board of Supervisors from 1873 to 1876, Town Treasurer in 1876, and is Town Treasurer at present; is a member of the M. E. Church. Married, in Kenosha, in 1855, Miss Mary C. Greene, a native of Vermont; they have three children, two boys and one girl--William H., Hattie M. and Edward J. Mr. Leach owns eighty and a half acres."[24]

After the death of Rufus Greene in March 1847, his wife, Betsey, and some of their children made their way to southeastern Wisconsin. The 1850 U.S. Census recorded Betsey, Ira, and Melville Greene as residents of Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin.[25] In the 1855 "Enumeration of the Inhabitants of the Town of Somers in Kenosha County, State of Wisconsin, on the first day of June, 1855, Widow Green was listed with two white males and two white females. Ira Greene was listed below Widow Green. Three white males and two white females were counted in the Ira Greene household. John Leach was listed with one white male and one white female. Since this census data was alphabetized, it was impossible to determine whether the Greene and the Leach households were neighbors.[26]

The 1860 U.S. Census for Somers taken 1 June 1860 recorded two Greene and one Leach household as follows: Dwelling No. 856, Family No. 775, Ira W. Green, age 33, born Vermont; Ada F. Green, 30, Ohio; Charles M., 9, Illinois; Imogene C. 7, Wisconsin; Helen C., 1, Wisconsin. Dwelling No. 857, Family No. 776, J. C. Leach, age 30, born New York; Mary C. Leach, 24, Vermont; William H. Leach, 3, Wisconsin; Hattie Leach 2, Wisconsin; John Frien, 24, Germany; Betsey Green, 63, Vermont. Dwelling No. 858, Family No. 777, Melville Green, age 37, born Vermont; Elisabeth Green, 22, New Jersey; Robert Green, 2, Wisconsin; George Green, 1/12, New Hampshire. . .The itemized data for each person in this census provided the name, age and birthplace for every member of each household..[27]

John C. Leach and his wife, Mary, had three children. Their oldest child, William H. Leach, was born 22 September 1856 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. He died 17 March 1926 in Racine from cerebral apoplexy.[28] William Leach married Emma Elizabeth Kingman, on 13 November 1878 in Somers. Emma was born 23 November 1855, the daughter of Enos Kingman and Elizabeth Gould. She died 14 July 1936 in Racine.[29] A record of the marriage of William and Emma was found in Kenosha County records.[30]

William and Emma had several children who were born in Racine, Racine County, Wisconsin. The following information has been provided concerning their children. Arthur Garfield Leach was born 13 July 1884. He married Arabelle Gibson in Racine. Arthur died 5 September 1941 at age 57 of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was buried in Mound Cemetery, Racine. Ethel E. was born

May 1888, but she died 14 June 1889. An unnamed child was born 13 June 1890 but probably died as an infant. Ruth K., a daughter, was born 3 December 1892; but she died 14 April 1897. Geanee was born 15 August 1895. She lived to adulthood and married William Ellingham. Grace, her twin sister, was born 15 August 1895; but she died 7 March 1898. Karen's name was found in cemetery records, but no further information has been found about her. Racine County vital records and cemetery records provided information concerning the children of William and Emma Leach.[31]

The following obituary for William H. Leach appeared in the Racine Journal News, March 18, 1926: "William H. Leach, aged 70 years, died at his late home, 1229 Cherry street, last night. He was born in the town of Somers, Kenosha County, and had been a resident of this city for 45 years. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. William Ellingham and one son, Arthur besides eight grandchildren. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Thronson Funeral home, South Main street, the Rev. Mr. Chynoweth officiating. The burial will be in Mound Cemetery.[32]

Their only daughter, Hattie M. Leach, was born 2 January 1858 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Hattie never married. She probably lived in Racine from about 1883 when her parents moved to Racine. Hattie's name first appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1887 as an assistant to C. C. Beebe. She apparently remained with the same employer until she moved to North Dakota about 1894. She appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1897 as follows: "Leach, Hattie M., emp. Beebe Mfg. Co., res. 1016 Geneva."[33] At this point, a conflict in data concerning Hattie's move from Racine, Wisconsin, to Havana, North Dakota, occurred.

Direct evidence from a primary source provided the following facts concerning Hattie's whereabouts on 8 March 1896: Havana Congregational Church records listed J. C. Leach as the first member received. Mrs. Mary Leach (Green) was member No. 2, and Hattie M. Leach was member No. 8. The church membership roster under "How Received" stated that the Leaches transferred from the First M. E. Church, Racine, Wisconsin.[34] Hattie's obituary stated the following "Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Crum Leach. She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak."[35] Three different sources provide three different years, so the exact date of her move probably will not be determined. She obviously lived in Havana, North Dakota, before March 1896.

Hattie Leach's obituary continued with the following remarks: "She worked as assistant to her brother, Edward, at the local depot until 1899, at which time she received the appointment as postmistress at Havana, which post she faithfully served for thirty-five years."[36] Hattie lived with her brother, Edward John Leach and his wife, Elizabeth King sometime after her mother's death in 1909. She was not a member of the Edward Leach household at the time of the 1910 census, but she resided with them in 1932 when Edward Leach, Jr., joined the famiily.[37] Hattie died 9 January 1935 of myocarditis in Britton, Marshall County, South Dakota. She was buried in Grave 3, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin, beside her parents, John C. and Mary Leach.[38]

Some Historical and Personal Comments: Ed Leach, Jr., reminisced about his great Aunt Hattie. "When I came to Havana after my mother died in April 1932, Aunt Hattie was living with my grandparents and working as postmistress at the local Post Office. When Franklin Roosevelt won the presidential election in 1932, Aunt Hattie lost her position. She was a "rock-ribbed" Republican; and after Franklin Roosevelt was inaugurated as President, a democratic postmaster replaced my aunt. In those days, a postmaster or postmistress position was controlled by political patronage. Today, these jobs are obtained through Civil Service."

Ed continued, "I lived with my grandparents from about May 1932 until Grandpa died in August 1936. Aunt Hattie had the important assignment of helping me learn to read. Every evening after supper we went to the porch, and she gave me a reading lesson. To the dismay of my Aunt Leola, who was my teacher, I memorized my reading lessons. When my aunt wasn't looking and when it was my turn to read, I stood in front of the class and read with the book upside-down. Of course, my aunt was very annoyed when the other "kids" laughed at my antics."[39]

Their youngest child, Edward John Leach was born 7 December 1863 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin.[40] He married Elizabeth King 4 September 1888 in White Town, Marshall County, South Dakota.[41] Elizabeth was born 16 September 1869 or 1870 in Avoca, Potawattamie County, Iowa, the daughter of Samuel Ashley King and Hannah Studwell.[42] Edward died 5 August 1936 of angina pectoris in Havana, North Dakota. He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota.[43] Elizabeth died 21 January 1937 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California, of diabetes complicated by gangrene. She was buried beside her husband in the Britton Cemetery.[44]

Note: The headstone inscription and death certificate gave Elizabeth King's birth date as 16 September 1870. The U.S. Census record for Avoca, Pottawattamie County, Iowa, taken on 12 July 1870, listed the following on page 189, line 23, dwelling 103, family 100: King, Saml, 44, farmer; Hannah, 39, keeping house; Horace G., 17, farm laborer; Jay, 14; Alpha, 12; William, 10; Mary A., 6; Elisabeth, 8/12. Elizabeth King's birth year must have been 1869. A child 8/12 of a year old on 12 July 1870 had to be born in 1869.[45]

Some Genealogical Facts and Some Interesting Details:

Samuel Ashley King was born 14 March 1825 in Chelsea, Orange County, Vermont.[46] John King, his father, was born 1 November 1796 in Wilbraham, Hampden County, Massachusetts,[47] the son of Oliver King who was born 5 December 1748 in Enfield, Hartford County, Connecticut. Oliver King was the son of Parmenas King and Hannah Terry.[48] John's mother, Ruth Cooley, Jr.,was born 18 July 1757 in Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts, the daughter of Aaron Cooley and his wife, Ruth Mears.[49] Oliver King and Ruth Cooley married 27 January 1777, in Wilbraham, Hampden County, Massachusetts.[50]

Samuel Ashley King's mother, Alpa M. H. Buck, born 27 April 1807, in Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont, was the daughter of Daniel Buck and Content Ashley.[51] Alpa married John King 1 January 1821 in Chelsea, Orange County, Vermont, before she was 14 years old.[52] John and Alpa had five children. Ann Maria was born 27 September 1821; Alonzo P. B., 17 March 1823; Samuel Ashley, 14 March 1825; Londus Bingham, 12 May 1828. These four children were born in Chelsea, Vermont.[53] .Their youngest son, Horace Allen, was born 27 April 1830 in Worcester, Washington County, Vermont.*

Alpa's father, Daniel Buck, was the son of Thomas Buck and Jane Buck. He served in the Revolutionary War and suffered the loss of his left arm as a result of an injury sustained in battle. Daniel Buck later became a well-known lawyer and politician.[54] It seemed reasonable to speculate that the loss of his arm affected his choice of a profession.

Content Ashley, Alpa's mother, was born in 1771, in Claremont, New Hampshire, the daughter of Samuel Ashley and Lydia Doolittle.[55] Content (Ashley) Buck died 14 January 1850, in Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts, at age 78 from a "disease of heart". She was buried in the Old Cemetery, Chelsea, Vermont, beside her husband.[56]

Daniel Buck's service to his state and counttry was detailed in the following paragraph on page 151 of Who Was Who in America, Historical Volume 1607-1896, Revised Edition, 1967:

> Buck, Daniel, congressman, state ofcl.; b. Hebron, Conn., Nov. 9, 1753; s. Thomas and Jane Buck; m. Content Ashley, Sept. 22, 1786, 11 children including Daniel. Fought in Am. Alpa must have been an important name for the Buck family. Alpa M. H. Buck was the third daughter that they named Alpa. The following records were obtained from the Norwich Town Hall, Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont: "Alpa Buck eldest daughter of Daniel & Content Buck died September 30th - 1803. Alpa Buck 2nd 4th -- daughter of Daniel & Content Buck born April 18th 1804 and died the 27th day of April A.D. 1807. Alpa Buck 3rd 5th daughter of Daniel and Content Buck was born the 27th of April A.D. 1807 about an hour before her sister died." To date, the source of this important name has not been found.[58]

Content Buck, lived almost 34 years after the death of her husband.[59] In 1838, she applied for a widow's pension in response to an Act of Congress enacted on 7th July 1838 entitled An act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows. A letter in Daniel Buck's pension file on June 19, 1895, to George W. Bassett, Los Angeles, California from the Department of Interior, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C., provided the following information: "In reply to your request for a statement of the military history of Daniel Buck a soldier of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR, you will find below the desired information as contained in his (or his widow's) application for pension on file in this Bureau. From papers on file with his widow's claim for pension it appears that he enlisted in the summer of 1775 as a private in Capt. Stephen Pearl's company, Col. B. R. Woodbridge's Massachusetts regiment, and in December, 1776, was commissioned a Sergeant in Capt. Asa Barnes' company, Col. Paul D. Sergent's regiment. It is probable that he rendered later service as a private but the dates of his enlistment and discharge are not given.. . .Battles engaged in: White Plains, Trenton, Bennington; Residence of soldier at enlistment, Lanesborough, Mass., born in Chelsea, Vermont.[53] Their youngest son, Horace Allen, was born 27 April 1830 in Worcester, Washington County, Vermont.*

Research indicated that Alpa M. H. (Buck) King lived in Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts. She married for the second time on 1 July 1851 in Lawrence. Her husband, David Morgan, was born 12 January 1797, in Beverly, Massachusetts, the son of Zachariah Morgan.[61] David Morgan died on 23 February 1878 in Andover, Massachusetts. His death record indicated that he was married at the time of death; however, no death record was found for Alpa Morgan in Massachusetts.[62] Since this State kept excellent early vital records, the absence of a death record for Alpa suggested some possible explanations. Some possibilities include the following: She died before 1878. They divorced. She survived him and moved out of state. The following biography relating to her son suggested that she, in fact, moved out of state; but no dates were provided.

This short biography about Samuel Ashley King from the History of Pottawattamie County, Iowa, O. L. Baskin & Co., 1883, provided the following information about the death of his mother and father: "S. A. King, farmer, P.O. Avoca, born in Orange County, Vt., April 13, 1825, [sic] [Samuel's birth date was 14 March 1825] son of John King, who died in Indiana in August, 1852; his mother [Alpa M. H. Buck] died in Dover, N. H." The biography continued with facts about his early work history. Before his father's death in Lake County, Indiana, Samuel went to Lake County. "His father, having moved there some time before, was very sick, and died from this sickness. He [Samuel] settled up the business and took his stepmother to Ohio.[63]"

Research continued in an effort to find documents or evidence about the place and date of death for Alpa, Samuel's mother, and for John King, his father; but to date, we have found no credible information. Alpa Buck married for a second time in July 1851[64], and John King reportedly died in August, 1852. Samuel's biography listed his states of residence until he reached 18 years of age. "Subject lived in Vermont until he was nine years old, when he was taken to Lowell, Mass., where he lived until he was thirteen years old, when he went to Huron [County], Ohio, remaining there until he was eighteen years old, when he rode on horseback to Galena, Ill., to try his fortunes in the lead mines." His mother's second marriage date, his father's death date, and his residence in Lowell, Massachusetts, and in Huron County, Ohio, suggested to these writers that Alpa and John King had divorced.[65] No evidence has been found concerning a divorce, but research will continue in an effort to find answers to these questions.

Hannah (Studwell) King (Henry Ett, on her father's will) was born 29 March 1830 in Genoa, Cayuga County, New York, the daughter of William Studwell and his wife, Elizabeth. Elizabeth Studwell's maiden name has not been determined despite research by several Studwell descendants. William Studwell was born 16 September 1784 in Stamford, Fairfield County, Connecticut, He was a son of Gabriel Studwell who was born in Stamford, Connecticut. Gabriel died 5 April 1831 in Genoa, Cayuga County, New York.[66]

Additional data is available, but since the information does not directly relate to John Crum Leach and Mary C. Greene, the facts will be limited to those already presented.

Edward John Leach and Elizabeth King were married 4 September 1888 in White Town, Marshall County, South Dakota.[67] Edward and Elizabeth had five children. Mabel Edna was born 19 July 1889, Britton, South Dakota;[68] John Stedwell, February 1891, Havana,[69] Sargent County, North Dakota; Samuel Jay, 26 November 1892, Havana;[70] Edward James, 29 December 1896, Havana;[71] and Leola Elizabeth, 10 September 1908 in Havana.[72]

Their oldest child, Mabel Edna, married William Wood Hastings on 14 February 1908 in Havana.[73] They had two children Willard Edward and Elizabeth Edna. Mabel died in 1961 in Sioux Falls, Minnehaha County, South Dakota. She was buried in Aberdeen, Brown County, South Dakota.[74]

John Stedwell Leach, their second child, married Mrs. Kate P. (Macy) Grant of Nassau, Minnesota, 26 September 1916 in Aberdeen, Brown County, South Dakota.[75] Their children were John Macy Leach, William King Leach, and Necia, Kate's daughter from her first marriage. After their younger son, William King Leach, graduated from high school in Havana, John and Kate moved with their family to Portland, Oregon. John died 5 December 1947 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon..

Their third child, Samuel Jay Leach, married Jessie Jordan on 20 June 1927 in Fargo, Cass County, North Dakota. Jean Leach was Sam and Jessie's only child. Samuel died 8 March 1945 in Havana. He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota.

Their fourth child, Edward James Leach married Vera Eleanor Chandler 20 April 1918 in Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota. Vera was born 29 August 1897 in Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, the daughter of William Abraham Chandler and Lulu A. Jones. She died 29 April 1932 in Rockford, Winnebago County, Illinois. Edward and Vera had five children, Jane, Vera, Elizabeth, Edward James, Jr., and Sally Ann. Edward, Sr., died 23 August 1963 in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon. He was buried in Willamette National Cemetery, Portland, Oregon.

Their fifth and youngest child, Leola Elizabeth, was born 10 September 1908 in Havana. Leola attended the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks. She taught school in Havana for several years before moving to California in 1936. Lee married Rex Reginald Hyde on 4 October 1936 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California. They moved to northern California where Lee taught high school English in Newark and Fremont for many years. Rex was born 24 August 1906, and he died in Fremont, Alameda County, California, in February 1972. The Hydes had no children. Leola Hyde currently lives in Roseville, California.

After this brief discussion of the three children born to John Crum Leach and Mary C. Greene, his wife, this sketch will return to Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, where John and Mary lived from about 1855 to circa 1882.

Listings in the Racine [Wisconsin] City Directory for 1883-1884 recorded "Leach, John C., farmer, res. 1206 N. Chatham," and "Leach Edward J. moulder, res., 1206 N. Chatham.". The N. Chatham." Edward J. Leach was no longer listed in the Racine City Directory in 1887. Since Edward Leach married Elizabeth King in White Town, South Dakota, on the 4 September 1888, he probably left the Racine area between 1885 and 1888..

The listings for John C. and Hattie in 1888 read as follows: "Leach, John C., works J. W. Higgie; res., 1333 N. Main" and "Leach, Hattie M. asst. C. C. Beebe, res. 1333 N. Main." William Leach was listed as a moulder, residence 812 Hamilton in 1888 The following listings appeared in the 1890-1891 directory: "Leach John C., emp R. H. Mfg. Co., r. 1333 N. Main and Leach. Hattie M. Miss, asst. Dr. C.. Beebe, bds 1333 N. Main." As previously mentioned, Hattie appeared in the 1897 directory, but direct evidence from a primary source indicated that she moved before 1897., Havana Congregational Church entered Hattie on the membership list on 8 March 1896. Hattie's obituary provided the following information: "She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak." A letter dated 31 March 1989 from the First United Methodist Church provided the following report: "J. C. and Mrs. Mary Leach were members of the church in 1889 and were given letters of transfer to Havana, North Dakota in 1895." These conflicting data leave unanswered questions about the exact year the Leaches moved to North Dakota, but these remarks seemed to show that the three Leaches probably moved between 1892 and 1895. The city directory listing for Hattie in 1897 was obviously an error.

Note: Another Leach family lived in Racine in 1891. Eugene W. Leach and George W. Leach, Jr., were sons of George Washington Leach and Sally Walter. They were born Burke, Vermont. Eugene, George, Jr., and John C. Leach worked at the R. H. Mfg Co. in 1891. In addition, they belonged to the First United Methodist Church; but to date, we have made no genealogical connection between these families.

John C. Leach and his son, Edward Leach, were important people in the construction and the early operation of the Congregational Church in Havana. The following remarks clarified their importance to the success of this endeavor: The church records contained the minutes of a "Meeting for the consideration of building of the church, Havana, N.D. Oct. 6, 1896; moderator Rev. Williams. Motion made and carried that J. C. Leach confer with E. J. Leach for location and price of lot for church." A second meeting of the church was held Oct. 13, 1896. The following motions were made and carried: "That the society accept one of the lots selected by E. J. and J. C. Leach." Another motion made at this meeting suggested the importance of the Leaches in the decision making process. "That a building committee consisting of the three trustees and Mr. Darrow, Mr. E. J. Leach, Mr. Ladd, Mr. Brougher and Mrs Murphy decide the cost and size of the church." In a meeting for organizing the church, these remarks seemed to underscore the importance of the Leaches in the organization of this church. "The next business was the election of officers. The following were elected by unanimous vote. Clerk - Mrs. C. A. Bacon. Treasurer - Hattie M. Leach, Deacon - Francis Andrus, Trustee for three years - J. C. Leach, for two years - Mrs. Catherine Brougher, for one year - G. K. Chesley. The motion was made and approved that we ask to be received into the Wahpetin Conference. Carried by unanimous vote.. - Adjournment, Hattie M. Leach Secy Pro tem" The minutes of the annual church meeting on May 20, 1897 reflected the following: "Moved and seconded that J. C. Leach be appointed Deacon for three years" and finally "If Mrs. Brougher's or J. C. Leach's term as trustee expires with the present year the clerk has the authority to extend the time another year. Carried. Moved and seconded that Hattie M. Leach be elected treasurer for the ensuing year. Carried."

Page 3 of the church records provided a list of the deacons of the church. John C. Leach's service as a deacon began on May 20, 1897, and ended Dec. 31, 1900. His second appointment as deacon began on Jan. 24, 1901, and ended Dec. 26, 1902, and the third appointment began Dec. 30, 1902. The last deacon assignment began Dec. 25 and ended with his death on Aug. 12, 1905. John C. Leach joined this church on 8 March 1896; and he held a position of trust and honor until his death.

At least two attempts have been made to secure a death certificate from the State of North Dakota for John C. Leach. A death certificate has proved to be an essential genealogical record for determining the names of the deceased parents, the place and date of birth, and the date , place and cause of death. The two requests for this record have been unsuccessful. It may be wise to make one more request for the record as many states have probably computerized their records. If by chance the original record were misplaced or temporarily lost, it might now be available. The most likely scenario was that the record was not filed as required. His death occurred shortly after the State of North Dakota required vital records.

Mary (Greene) Leach died 30 March 1909 in Havana, North Dakota. Her death record was obtained from the State of North Dakota. Her death certificate gave the date of death, the names of her parents, and the place and date of birth. Other records have corroborated the data found in this record. It was a very valuable document, indeed.

An obituary was found for John C. Leach in the Monday afternoon issue, August 14, 1905, of The Racine Daily Journal, Racine, Wisconsin.

> J. C. Leach, a former old resident of Racine died on Saturday afternoon at his home in Havana, North Dakota age 78 years. The remains will be brought to the city for burial. Funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his son, William Leach, [? ?] Villa Street. There survives the deceased a wife, two sons and one daughter. Mr. Leach was one of the honored and early residents and left here about ten years ago.

In addition to his wife, Mary, and his three children, William H., Hattie M. and Edward John Leach, seven grandchildren survived him. Arthur Garfield and Geanee Leach, children of William H. and Emma Leach, and Mabel Edna, John Stedwell, Samuel Jay, Edward James, and Leola Elizabeth, children of Edward John and Elizabeth Leach survived their grandfather.

An obituary for Mary Leach has not been located. We were unable to find an obituary in the Sargent County papers for either John or Mary Leach. Some obituaries contain important genealogical data, but John Leach's obituary was too general in content to be useful. We needed the names of his parents. We still do not know the name of his mother.

John Leach was buried in Grave 5, and Mary was buried in Grave 4, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin. Their daughter, Hattie, was buried beside them in Grave 3.

Who were Henry P. Greene and Emma C. Greene?

Early in our search for information about the Leach and Greene families, we were given copies of a letter and a certificate of good conduct. (1) The letter was addressed to Miss Hattie May Leach, Somers, Wis. from Cousin Henry [Henry P. Greene], Burlington, Vt., May 10, 1867. The final paragraph of the letter stated, "Well I have written you a long long letter and I suppose you will get very tired before you get it all read if indeed you can read it all it is so poorly written, so I will close. I want you to write a long letter to me very soon, and I want you [to] kiss Eddie and Willie and Mama an [sic] papa and Grandma for me., and remember, Eddie's first because he is my boy and don't forget to write. Cousin Henry." (2) The certificate provided this information. "This Certificate of good conduct is awarded to MISS EMMA C. GREEN In testimony of the cordial approbation of the Principal and Teachers of the Kenosha Young ladies Institute, for having completed a Term of eleven weeks, without any deviation from the rules of this Institution. Sophronia Broughton, Kenosha April, 1852."

Information gleaned from the probate files for Pliny P. Greene [a brother of Mary C. (Greene) Leach] and his widow, Celia S. Greene provided the answer to the questions, Who were Henry P. Greene and Emma C. Greene? The direct evidence provided by these primary sources gave clear and convincing evidence that Henry and Emma Greene were children of Pliny P. Greene and his wife, Celia. John C. Leach was appointed administer of Celia Greene's estate. This fact suggested close ties between the Leach and Greene families.

> "The petition of Celia S. Green of said county [herewith] that her late husband Pliny P. Greene died on or about the second day of November 1850 in California leaving personal & real estate in Kenosha County and leaving two children to wit Emily C. Greene & Henry P. Greene both under the age of fourteen years who are residents of the county of Kenosha. Your petitioner therefore asks that she may be appointed guardian of said infant children. Signed: Celia S. Greene Dated February 22, 1851."

The second quotation signed by John C. Leach on May 20th 1858 was found in the probate file for Celia S. Greene:

> "The petition of John C. Leach of the town of Somers County of Kenosha & state of Wisconsin who is a creditor respectfully represents that Celia S. Green late of the City of Kenosha and County of Kenosha and State of Wisconsin, deceased on the 2nd day of October A. D. 1857 at her residence in the City of Kenosha aforesaid, intestate, as your petitioner believes, no last will and testament having been found or being known to exist; that said deceased left two children, viz: Emma C. Green aged about 20 years & Henry P. Green aged nine years who constitute the family of said deceased; that said deceased left goods, chattels, and personal estate within this county (or state) to the probable amount of one hundred & fifty dollars, and real estate to the amount unknown to your petitioner. That said deceased left debts to an amount (unknown to your petitioner)."

"Your petitioner being desirous that Administration of the estate of said deceased be legally administered, would pray that administration thereof be granted unto him.and that appraisers be appointed pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, and according to the rules and practice of this court. Dated: Kenosha, May 20th 1858. Signed: John C. Leach."

As we end this narrative about John Crum Leach and Mary C. (Greene) Leach, some of their ancestors, and some of their descendants, we know unanswered questions remain; and we plan to continue our search for answers.

We urge anyone with facts about the people discussed in this sketch to share information with us. We plan to update this account when important data have been found.

One final historical story remains to be shareed. On page one, we noted that Dorothy Phelps, the wife of John Weed, was the daughter of Lemuel Phelps and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps. Lemuel and Dorothy Phelps were great grandparents of Mary C. Greene. After the birth of ten children, the following remarks from The Phelps Family of America. . . revealed surprising information. "He [Lemuel] joined the Shakers, and d. Hancock, Mass., Sept., 1808, aged 78." Dorothy (Dolly), the only girl, was born 25 November 1767. Luther the oldest son was born in 1760, and Elijah, the youngest son, was born in 1780. If several of the children were still dependent on their parents when Lemuel joined the Shakers, Dorothy Phelps probably had many hard, difficult years.

One late afternoon in 1987, we were in the Spear Road Cemetery in Shelburne, Vermont, checking the names on the oldest headstones. As we turned to leave the cemetery, we saw an old rectangular marble stone. The inscription read as follows: "In Memory of/Mrs. Dorothy/relict of/Mr. Lemuel Phelps/late of Pittsfield, Mass./who died/April 19, 1821/Aged 87 years. Dorothy was buried in the cemetery lot with her son, Elijah and his family.

We have limited information about this story, but it certainly merits further research. The situation described above provides food for imagination. The facts presented in Dorothy's situation could serve as a basis for a compelling historical novel.

May 1888, but she died 14 June 1889. An unnamed child was born 13 June 1890 but probably died as an infant. Ruth K., a daughter, was born 3 December 1892; but she died 14 April 1897. Geanee was born 15 August 1895. She lived to adulthood and married William Ellingham. Grace, her twin sister, was born 15 August 1895; but she died 7 March 1898. Karen's name was found in cemetery records, but no further information has been found about her. Racine County vital records and cemetery records provided information concerning the children of William and Emma Leach.[31]

The following obituary for William H. Leach appeared in the Racine Journal News, March 18, 1926: "William H. Leach, aged 70 years, died at his late home, 1229 Cherry street, last night. He was born in the town of Somers, Kenosha County, and had been a resident of this city for 45 years. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. William Ellingham and one son, Arthur besides eight grandchildren. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Thronson Funeral home, South Main street, the Rev. Mr. Chynoweth officiating. The burial will be in Mound Cemetery.[32]

Their only daughter, Hattie M. Leach, was born 2 January 1858 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. Hattie never married. She probably lived in Racine from about 1883 when her parents moved to Racine. Hattie's name first appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1887 as an assistant to C. C. Beebe. She apparently remained with the same employer until she moved to North Dakota circa 1894. She appeared in the Racine City Directory in 1897 as follows: "Leach, Hattie M., emp. Beebe Mfg. Co., res. 1016 Geneva."[33] At this point, a conflict in data concerning Hattie's move from Racine, Wisconsin, to Havana, North Dakota, occurred. 1887 City Directory

Direct evidence from a primary source provided the following facts concerning Hattie's whereabouts on 8 March 1896: Havana Congregational Church records listed J. C. Leach as the first member received. Mrs. Mary Leach (Green) was member No. 2, and Hattie M. Leach was member No. 8. The church membership roster under "How Received" stated that the Leaches transferred from the First M. E. Church, Racine, Wisconsin.[34] Hattie's obituary stated the following "Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Crum Leach. She was born in Kenosha County, Wisc., in 1858, at which place she lived until 1894, when she joined her family who were then residing at Havana, N. Dak."[35] Three different sources provide three different years, so the exact date of her move probably will not be determined. She obviously lived in Havana, North Dakota, before March 1896.

Excerpts Church record

Hattie Obit

Hattie Leach's obituary continued with the following remarks: "She worked as assistant to her brother, Edward, at the local depot until 1899, at which time she received the appointment as postmistress at Havana, which post she faithfully served for thirty-five years."[36] Hattie lived with her brother, Edward John Leach and his wife, Elizabeth King sometime after her mother's death in 1909. She was not a member of the Edward Leach household at the time of the 1910 census, but she resided with them in 1932 when Edward Leach, Jr., joined the famiily.(37) Hattie died 9 January 1935 of myocarditis in Britton, Marshall County, South Dakota. She was buried in Grave 3, Lot 95, Block 28, Mound Cemetery, Racine, Wisconsin, beside her parents, John C. and Mary Leach.[38]

1910 Censu

Some Historical and Personal Comments: Ed Leach, Jr., reminisced about his great Aunt Hattie. "When I came to Havana after my mother died in April 1932, Aunt Hattie was living with my grandparents and working as postmistress at the local Post Office. When Franklin Roosevelt won the presidential election in 1932, Aunt Hattie lost her position. She was a "rock-ribbed" Republican; and after Franklin Roosevelt was inaugurated as President, a democratic postmaster replaced my aunt. In those days, a postmaster or postmistress position was controlled by political patronage. Today, these jobs are obtained through Civil Service."

Ed continued, "I lived with my grandparents from about May 1932 until Grandpa died in August 1936. Aunt Hattie had the important assignment of helping me learn to read. Every evening after supper we went to the porch, and she gave me a reading lesson. To the dismay of my Aunt Leola, who was my teacher, I memorized my reading lessons. When my aunt wasn't looking and when it was my turn to read, I stood in front of the class and read with the book upside-down. Of course, my aunt was very annoyed when the other "kids" laughed at my antics." 39 Conversation with Ed

Their youngest child, Edward John Leach was born 7 December 1863 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin.(40) He married Elizabeth King 4 September 1888 in White Town, Marshall County, South Dakota.(41) Elizabeth was born 16 September 1869 in Avoca, Potawattamie County, Iowa, the daughter of Samuel Ashley King and Hannah Studwell. Edward died 5 August 1936 of angina pectoris in Havana, North Dakota.(42) He was buried in the Britton Cemetery, Britton, South Dakota. Elizabeth died 21 January 1937 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles County, California, of diabetes complicated by gangrene.(43) She was buried beside her husband in the Britton Cemetery.(44)

Note: The headstone inscription and death certificate gave Elizabeth King's birth date as 16 September 1870.(45) The U.S. Census record for Avoca, Pottawattamie County, Iowa, taken on 12 July 1870, listed the following on page 189, line 23, dwelling 103, family 100: King, Saml, 44, farmer; Hannah, 39, keeping house; Horace G., 17, farm laborer; Jay, 14; Alpha, 12; William, 10; Mary A., 6; Elisabeth, 8/12. Elizabeth King's birth year must have been 1869. A child 8/12 of a year old on 12 July 1870 had to be born in 1869.(46)

Some Genealogical Facts and Some Interesting Details:

Samuel Ashley King was born 14 March 1825 in Chelsea, Orange County, Vermont.(47) John King, his father, was born 1 November 1796 in Wilbraham, Hampden County, Massachusetts, the son of Oliver King who was born 5 December 1748 in Enfield, Hartford County, Connecticut.(48) Oliver King was the son of Parmenas King and Hannah Terry.(49) John's mother, Ruth Cooley, Jr.,was born 18 July 1757 in Springfield, Hampden County, Massachusetts, the daughter of Aaron Cooley and his wife, Ruth Mears.(50)

Samuel Ashley King's mother, Alpa M. H. Buck, was born 27 April 1807 in Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont, was the daughter of Daniel Buck and Content Ashley.51 Alpa married John King 1 January 1821 in Chelsea, Orange County, Vermont, before she was 14 years old.52 Marriage record John and Alpa had five children. Ann Maria was born 27 September 1821; Alonzo P. B., 17 March 1823; Samuel Ashley, 14 March 1825; Londus Bingham, 12 May 1828. These four children were born in Chelsea, Vermont.53 Their youngest son, Horace Allen, was born 27 April 1830 in Worcester, Washington County, Vermont. 54 where was documentation

m Jane Leane. (55)

Alpa's father, Daniel Buck, was probably the son of Thomas Buck and Jane Seymour. He served in the Revolutionary War and suffered the loss of his left arm as a result of an injury sustained in battle. (56) Daniel Buck later became a well-known lawyer and politician. It seemed reasonable to speculate that the loss of his arm affected his choice of a profession.

Content Ashley, Alpa's mother, was born in 1771, in Claremont, New Hampshire, the daughter of Samuel Ashley and Lydia Doolittle. 57 Content (Ashley) Buck died 14 January 1850, in Lawrence, Essex County, Massachusetts, at age 78 from a "disease of heart". She was buried in the Old Cemetery, Chelsea, Vermont, beside her husband. 59 58

Daniel Buck's service to his state and counttry was detailed in the following paragraph on page 151 of Who Was Who in America, Historical Volume 1607-1896, Revised Edition, 1967:

> Buck, Daniel, congressman, state ofcl.; b. Hebron, Conn., Nov. 9, 1753; s. Thomas and Jane Buck; m. Content Ashley, Sept. 22, 1786, 11 children including Daniel. Fought in Am. Revolution; one of Vt.'s earliest settlers, 1780; admitted to Vt. Bar, 1783; pros. atty, Orange County (Vt.), 1783-85, clk. Orange County Ct., 1783-84; del. to Vt. Conv. which ratified U.S. Constn., 1791; speaker Vt. Assembly, 1793-94; mem. Vt. Council of Censors, 1792; atty. gen. Vt., 1794, 1814; mem. U.S. Ho. of Reps. (Federalist) from Vt., 4th Congress, 1795-97; states atty. Windsor County (Vt.), 1802-03. Died Chelsea, Vt. Aug. 16, 1816, buried Old Cemetery, Chelsea. 60

Alpa must have been an important name for the Buck family. Alpa M. H. Buck was the third daughter that they named Alpa. The following records were obtained from the Norwich Town Hall, Norwich, Windsor County, Vermont: "Alpa Buck eldest daughter of Daniel & Content Buck died September 30th - 1803. Alpa Buck 2nd 4th -- daughter of Daniel & Content Buck born April 18th 1804 and died the 27th day of April A.D. 1807. Alpa Buck 3rd 5th daughter of Daniel and Content Buck was born the 27th of April A.D. 1807 about an hour before her sister died." To date, the source of this important name has not been found. 61

62 Death record for Content Buck.

Content Buck, lived almost 34 years after the death of her husband. In 1838, she applied for a widow's pension in response to an Act of Congress enacted on 7th July 1838 entitled An act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows. A letter in Daniel Buck's pension file on June 19, 1895, to George W. Bassett, Los Angeles, California from the Department of Interior, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C., provided the following information: "In reply to your request for a statement of the military history of Daniel Buck a soldier of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR, you will find below the desired information as contained in his (or his widow's) application for pension on file in this Bureau. From papers on file with his widow's claim for pension it appears that he enlisted in the summer of 1775 as a private in Capt. Stephen Pearl's company, Col. B. R. Woodbridge's Massachusetts regiment, and in December, 1776, was commissioned a Sergeant in Capt. Asa Barnes' company, Col. Paul D. Sergent's regiment. It is probable that he rendered later service as a private but the dates of his enlistment and discharge are not given.. . .Battles engaged in: White Plains, Trenton, Bennington; Residence of soldier at enlistment, Lanesborough, Mass., Date of application for pension, by widow, April 16, 1839; Residence at date of application, of widow, Washington, D. C.; Age at date of application, of widow, sixty-seven years. Remarks:

As we end this narrative about John Crum Leach and Mary C. (Greene) Leach, some of their ancestors, and some of their descendants, we know unanswered questions remain; and we plan to continue our search for answers.

We urge anyone with facts about the people discussed in this sketch to share information with us. We plan to update this account when important data have been found.

One final historical story remains to be shareed. On page one, we noted that Dorothy Phelps, the wife of John Weed, was the daughter of Lemuel Phelps and Dorothy (Phelps) Phelps. Lemuel and Dorothy Phelps were great grandparents of Mary C. Greene. After the birth of ten children, the following remarks from The Phelps Family of America. . . revealed surprising information. "He [Lemuel] joined the Shakers, and d. Hancock, Mass., Sept., 1808, aged 78." Dorothy (Dolly), the only girl, was born 25 November 1767. Luther the oldest son was born in 1760, and Elijah, the youngest son, was born in 1780. If several of the children were still dependent on their parents when Lemuel joined the Shakers, Dorothy Phelps probably had many hard, difficult years.

One late afternoon in 1987, we were in the Spear Road Cemetery in Shelburne, Vermont, checking the names on the oldest headstones. As we turned to leave the cemetery, we saw an old rectangular marble stone. The inscription read as follows: "In Memory of/Mrs. Dorothy/relict of/Mr. Lemuel Phelps/late of Pittsfield, Mass./who died/April 19, 1821/Aged 87 years. Dorothy was buried in the cemetery lot with her son, Elijah and his family.

We have limited information about this story, but it certainly merits further research. The situation described above provides food for imagination. The facts presented in Dorothy's situation could serve as a basis for a compelling historical novel.
